

The CPTAV Awards Committee invite nominations for the 2015 Outstanding Professional Service Awards.

About the awards

The CPTAV Awards give member Professional Associations a chance to honour dedicated service. They celebrate those who have made an outstanding honorary or voluntary contribution to their association's support of teachers and education in Victoria over an extended period of time.

Who can nominate?

Current financial member Professional Associations can make ONE nomination. To check your financial status please contact Kevin Kelley via email kevin.kelley@amuse.vic.edu.au

Who is eligible?

The individual being nominated must:

- be a current member of the nominating Professional Association, or retired from active service in the current financial year
- have actively supported the purposes of the professional teaching association and made a significant contribution to the association in the form of one or more of the following:
  - involved in a range of activities that highlights work of the association at a local level that contributes to the professional standing of teachers, e.g. served as a committee member/office bearer, award or accreditation coordinator or website/ICT coordinator
  - acted as a mentor and facilitator for colleagues in promoting and leading professional learning activities and those carried out by the association
  - made a significant impact on the work of teachers through their ability to creatively implement change through professional learning
  - made a significant contribution to the association's publications either at a personal or professional level, e.g. served as a journal editor, developed teaching resources, written articles, etc.
